TOM WOOD AUTOMOTIVE SIGNS ON AS 2013 SUSTAINABILITY AWARDS LUNCHEON PRESENTING SPONSOR

City Makes Final Call for Award Applications; Deadline to Submit is Feb. 8

INDIANAPOLIS – The Office of Sustainability announced today that Tom Wood Automotive has signed on as the presenting sponsor of the 2013 Sustainability Awards Luncheon to be held in April. Applications for the fourth annual Sustainability Awards are being accepted through Feb. 8 for projects completed in Marion County between Jan. 1, 2012, and Dec. 31, 2012.

“The City is leading by example to create one of the most sustainable and livable cities in the Midwest. Employers and individuals throughout Indianapolis are joining our efforts and having an impact,” Mayor Greg Ballard said. “The Sustainability Awards offer a unique and inspiring way to honor those who are making the commitment to better their operations and improve our city.”

The City is accepting applications until 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 8, 2013. No project is too small! Businesses and individuals are encouraged to apply in the categories of water, land, air, energy and reduce-reuse-recycle. Applications may be downloaded at www.indy.gov/sustainIndy/awards.

“Our dealerships are committed to the advancement of sustainability in Indianapolis,” said Jeff Wood, President of Tom Wood Automotive. “We are very excited about this partnership with the Office of Sustainability and look forward to celebrating the innovative projects that help move our city forward.”

The 2013 Indianapolis Sustainability Awards are designed to inspire innovation, showcase impact, reward leadership and promote education around the principles of sustainability. Finalists and awards will be honored by Mayor Ballard at a luncheon on April 24, 2013. For the application, tickets and sponsorship information, visit www.indy.gov/sustainindy/awards.
